MISSOULA.....

The University of Montana women's track team will be the host of the 1973 Montana Women's Intercollegiate Sports Association State Meet. The one-day meet opens at 1:00 p.m. Friday with the field events and the 200-meter hurdles.

Besides the UM team, entries have been received from College of Great Falls, Dawson Community College in Glendive, Flathead Valley Community College, Montana State University and Western Montana College.

Favored to win the team title is Flathead Valley Community College. FVCC competitors have recorded several of the best times and distances in the state this season.

FVCC's Sue Cornelius has jumped a fine 17 feet 7 inches in the long jump to lead that event. Teammate Bonnie Williamson has thrown 41 feet in the shot put but MSU's Rene Kessler has bettered that mark with a 43-foot toss earlier this season. Kessler is a former FVCC star, having transferred to MSU last fall.

In the track events, UM hopes to finish 1-2 in the 440 yard dash. Mindy Sharp and Alice Brinkerhoff boast the fastest times, 59.0 and 59.9 respectively.

Brinkerhoff renews an old rivalry with Gigi Brown of FVCC in the 880 yard run. Brown has a best time of 2:23.0 this season while Brinkerhoff has run 2:21.9.

In two previous meetings, at the MSU Indoor meet and the Flathead Invitational, Brinkerhoff edged out Brown both times.
